Wisconsin Deferred Compensation Program
Fact Sheet
As of December 31, 2014

The Wisconsin Deferred Compensation Program (WDC) is a supplemental retirement savings program authorized under Section 457 of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). The WDC was created by Wisconsin Laws of 1981 Chapter 187 and established in 1982 for state employees; it has been available to local employers since 1985.

Program Administration

The Department of Employee Trust Funds and the Deferred Compensation Board (Board) have statutory authority for program administration and oversight. The Board contracts for administrative services (marketing, record keeping, daily program administration) through a competitive bid process. Empower Retirement is under contract to provide these services through November 30, 2017.

The Board selects the investment options offered by the WDC and contracts directly with investment providers. The Board annually reviews the performance of the investment options offered to determine if they continue to meet established performance benchmarks. Options that are determined to be no longer acceptable may be removed from the WDC and new options may be added at any time.

Features

Maximum Deferral - Section 457 plan participants may contribute 100% of taxable income to their accounts, up to a federal maximum that is adjusted annually. In 2014, this maximum was $17,500 annually. In 2015, this maximum is $18,000 annually. Participants over age 50 are eligible to contribute an additional $6,000 annually. The maximum limit for federal income tax purposes may be periodically increased (in $500 increments) for cost of living adjustments tied to the consumer price index. Participants within three years of normal retirement age who under-contributed in prior years may also be eligible to contribute an additional $18,000 annually.

Account Flexibility - The WDC allows participants to:

- Change the amount of their deferrals at any time.
- Save by deferring traditional pre-tax or Roth (post-tax) dollars.
- Redirect deferrals to other investment options offered by the WDC without restriction.
- Exchange existing account balances from one option to another (subject to the excessive trading policy).
- Elect to use the Asset Allocation Service to provide automatic rebalancing of a participant's account balance based on an established asset allocation model.
- Elect to use the WDC's managed accounts service (additional separate fee applies).

Portability - Dollars from a traditional IRA, a 401(k) and a 403(b) can be rolled into the WDC, and amounts distributed from the WDC, can roll into a traditional IRA, a 401(k) and a 403(b) plan. Dollars rolled out of the WDC are subject to the tax rules of the new plan.

Participant Services - WDC representatives in Wisconsin are available to assist participants between 7:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. every workday of the year. Both participants and employers may call contact WDC at 1-877-457-9327 (toll-free).

An automated voice response system is available for participants to obtain account information and execute transactions. The WDC's website at www.wdc457.org offers program information, access to personal account data and execution of transactions online. Distribution of an itemized participant statement and newsletter occurs within 15 days of the end of each quarter.

Distribution Options - At termination of employment, participants may defer receiving distributions from their account up to age 70½. Distribution options available include lump sum payments, partial lump sum payments and periodic payments.

WDC Program Costs

Participant fees and reimbursements from investment providers provide funding for program administration. State funds are not used for the administration of the WDC. Contracts with investment providers are negotiated to include certain reimbursements in consideration of the record keeping services being provided by the WDC through its contract administrator. The Board annually reviews administrative revenues and expenses and adjusts participant fees as necessary. Annual participant fees, in effect since January 1, 2008, are:
